ROCK HILL, S.C. — Music major Colleen Rice and business administration major Timothy Mention captured top honors at the 2013 Winthrop University Student Life Awards ceremony Wednesday night. Frank Ardaiole, vice president for student life, presented the awards.

Rice took the Mary Mildred Sullivan Award, while Mention won the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award. Sponsored by the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Foundation, the two awards are presented annually to students who have given great service to the university and plan to continue service after graduation.

Rice, from Antioch, Calif., will graduate this May with a Bachelor of Arts in music and political science with a social sciences minor. Since transferring to Winthrop three years ago, she has been an Orientation leader and peer mentor, and is now staff coordinator on the peer mentor leadership staff. She has participated in Alternative Spring Break and served as philanthropy chair for her Chi Omega Sorority, where she organized a Make-A-Wish Foundation fundraiser.

Mention, of Hemingway, S.C., will also graduate this May with a Bachelor of Science in business administration with a health care management option. He is president of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, and has led them to award-winning status. Mention has taught leadership skills, manners and respect to high school students through his work with the Guide Right Program; volunteered for MLK Day of Service and Rolling in Rock Hill; participated in the CROP Walk and Construction; and many other service projects. He is also a member of S.O.A.R. and The Gentlemen's League, as well as worked as an admissions counselor assistant.

The prestigious American Legion Awards were given to Tyler Polomski, an exercise science major from Easley, S.C., and Thelma Williams, a middle level education major from Rock Hill. The awards are presented annually to graduating students who display outstanding courage, companionship, character, service and scholarship. Polomski has put in hours of volunteer work with MDA Summer

Camp, the Children's Attention Home and more, while Williams completed mission trips to the Bahamas, New York, Charleston and Nicaragua, as well as educated the student body through the ONE campaign and Winthrop Wesley Foundation.
